From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends,

On the Solemnity of the Epiphany, the Church celebrates a beautiful and challenging truth: Jesus Christ is revealed not only to a chosen few, but to all nations, all peoples, all hearts. In the Gospel, the Magi—foreigners and outsiders—set out on a long and uncertain journey because they were attentive to a sign, a star that pointed beyond itself to something greater.

What is striking is that God chose to use ordinary means to lead them to Christ: a star in the sky, the Scriptures of Israel, and the quiet faithfulness of Mary and Joseph. Each played a role in revealing the presence of the Saviour. None of them preached loudly—but all of them pointed clearly.

The Epiphany reminds us that we, too, have an important part to play in bringing Christ into the minds and hearts of others. Like the star, our lives are meant to point beyond ourselves. Through simple acts of kindness, integrity, patience, forgiveness, and quiet faith, we can help others notice that God is near.

Herod and the scholars knew about the Messiah, but it was the Magi who went searching and were transformed. When they encountered Jesus, they were changed—and Scripture tells us they “returned home by another way.” A true encounter with Christ always changes our direction.

This feast invites us to ask: Who might God be drawing through my witness? How might my words, choices, and love help someone take one step closer to Christ?

May we never underestimate the power of a faithful life to reveal the Light of the world.

Fr. Chris

Bulletin Advertising

If you own or operate a business, you are invited to advertise in our Parish Bulletin beginning 2026. It's an opportunity to promote your services while supporting parish initiatives. For more information, please email office3@stbernajax.com

Alpha

On Thursday January 8 at 6:30pm - 8:30pm, we will begin the Alpha Course at St. Bernadette's. Alpha provides a space to ask all your questions about life, faith, and meaning in a friendly setting with people who, like you, want to explore life's big questions in a low-pressure environment.

Breaking bread together is one of the ways Jesus shared life with people, so every Alpha session will begin with a meal to build community over casual conversation. For more information, please visit our website: <https://www.stbernajax.com/alpha>

We're also looking for parishioners to help by cooking a casserole for one of our Thursday evening meals. Recipes will be provided, and meals can be dropped off during the week to be re-heated when needed. Please contact Robert at lpa@stbernajax.com if you can prepare 1 meal over the next 10 weeks.
