From the Pastor's Desk

Dear friends,

This weekend we celebrate the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, a day to give thanks for the wisdom, love, and faith that our grandparents share with us. Pope Francis reminded us that grandparents are a "precious treasure," the keepers of memories and faith who pass on the story of God's love to new generations.

Many of us can recall moments when a grandparent's quiet prayer, a word of encouragement, or even a simple act of kindness helped shaped our faith. In today's fast-paced world, the elderly among us remind us to slow down, to cherish our roots, and to see the world through the lens of gratitude.

Let us take time this week to reach out to a grandparent or an elder in our community – a phone call, a visit, or a simple prayer for them can mean so much. Their presence is a living testimony of God's enduring love.

I also invite you to join us for Coffee Sunday after Mass. It's the perfect occasion to gather, share stories, and perhaps thank those "spiritual grandparents" who continue to guide us by their example of faith.

May we always hold our grandparents and elders in our prayers, asking God to bless them with health, joy, and peace.

Father Chris
