From the Pastor's Desk

Dear friends,

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus affirms for the faithful people asking the Lord's most important commandments; to love God with all our heart, mind and soul and next to it, to love our neighbour as we do ourselves. These two commandments were the recited prayers of the people. He starts them there, and they must grow from there. The same as us - our faith is never a stagnate or fully formed faith, not for any of us. Our Christian faith in God is ultimately and always a relationship and so just like any relationship - it only gets better the more effort and work we put into it. Obviously in every human relationship, two people have to work at it - God is always going to be the better half, but if we do our part with sincerity and desire, God will bring us the rest of the way.

Yours in Christ,

Father Chris
