From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, we hear how Jesus calls His first disciples. They respond to His invitation and begin a relationship that will change their lives forever. This beautiful moment reminds us that our faith is not meant to be lived alone. We are called to stay connected—to God and to one another—as a parish family.

Connection happens in many ways: through prayer, worship, serving together, sharing a cup of coffee after Mass, or simply checking in on one another during the week. In our modern world, connection also happens digitally, and we want to meet people where they are.

I am pleased to share that our parish has a new and improved official Facebook page! This will be an important way for us to stay connected as a community. Through it, you will find updates about parish events, Mass times, photos, reflections, reminders, and opportunities to get involved. It is also a simple way to invite others to discover our parish.

I encourage you to follow our page, like our posts, and share them with family and friends. In doing so, you help extend our parish family beyond our church walls and bring the light of Christ to others. Please consider connecting with us - <https://bit.ly/49BAQkd>

Let us continue to grow together—in faith, friendship, and connection—wherever we are.

God bless you always,

Fr. Chris

Faith Studies

Fr. Augustus Tolton - From Slavery to Sainthood

Join us on Monday, February 9 at 9:30am in the Parish Hall for an inspiring video and discussion on the life of Fr. Augustus Tolton, the first recognized Black Catholic priest in the United States. Born into slavery and facing great obstacles, Fr. Tolton persevered in faith and became a powerful witness to the Gospel. His story is one of courage, perseverance, and deep love for the Church. All are welcome!

The Crucifixion: A Priestly Act and a Nuptial Act"

Join us on Monday, February 23 at 9:30am in the Parish Hall as we explore Dr. John Bergsma's powerful teaching on how St. John's Gospel reveals the Crucifixion as both Christ's priestly sacrifice and His self-giving love as Bridegroom. Through Scripture and Church teaching, we are invited to see the Cross, and the Eucharist in a deeper and more meaningful way. A video presentation followed by discussion. All are welcome!

Alpha

Our Alpha Course runs on Thursdays from 6:30pm - 8:30pm. Alpha provides a space to ask all your questions about life, faith, and meaning in a friendly setting with people who, like you, want to explore life's big questions in a low-pressure environment.

Breaking bread together is one of the ways Jesus shared life with people, so every Alpha session will begin with a meal to build community over casual conversation. For more information, please visit our website: <https://www.stbernajax.com/alpha>

We're also looking for parishioners to help by preparing a casserole for one of our Thursday evening meals - recipes will be provided. Meals can be dropped off during the week to be re-heated when needed. Please contact Robert at ipa@stbernajax.com if you are able to prepare 1 meal over the next 10 weeks.

Our Eucharistic Ministers help bring the Body and Blood of Christ to our community during Mass. This ministry is a profound way to serve and share in the heart of our worship.

Lectors
